Holi is known as the Indian "festival of spring" or the "festival of colors". Holi celebrations start on the night before Holi with a Holika Dahan where people gather, perform religious rituals in front of the bonfire, and pray that their internal evil be destroyed the way Holika, the sister of the demon king Hiranyakashipu, was killed in the fire. The next morning is celebrated as Rangwali Holi or Dhuleti – a festival of colors, where people smear each other with colors.
